COACH'S CREDO

(Adapted from standards of the USA Football Program, usafootball.com and National Youth Sports, www.nysonline.org)

As a Volunteer Coach, I have adequately prepared with training in following areas (as required):

1. Rutgers University Safety Course
2. First Aid and CPR
3. Background Check
4. (FOR PEEWEE, JUNIOR VARSITY & VARSITY) -- USA Football Tackle webinar

I will participate in additional training as deemed necessary by the Board and as feasible.

As a community member, it is my honor to serve as a Volunteer Coach with the North Plainfield Junior Canucks Football & Cheer Youth Program (NPJC). As such, I commit to the following Coach's Credo:

- Use my current knowledge and methods of instruction to teach the skills of Football and/or Cheer
- Conduct all practices and games in a safe physical environment, complete with appropriate equipment
- Ensure adequate supervision of all student-athletes during scheduled practices and games
- Maintain a positive atmosphere free of fear, discrimination, abuse and harassment
- Ensure provision of appropriate emergency care
- Be a role model by demonstrating sportsmanship, respect, citizenship and value of hard work at all times
- Communicate with parents regarding any and all concerns regarding their son/daughter's well-being
- All athletes will be afforded the opportunity to develop their work ethic and sense of commitment

The goal is to win, but to win the correct way! Never sacrifice character for wins!
We encourage the development of our student-athletes into productive citizens and to develop their abilities and attitudes for further learning and success in life.
